RHYTHMLINK INTERNATIONAL RECEIVES PALMETTO PILLAR AWARD

COLUMBIA, S.C. - May, 2007 - Rhythmink International was recently awarded the 2007 Palmetto Pillar Small Enterprise Award. The annual Palmetto Pillar Awards are given by the Columbia Information Technology Council (CIT), a group sponsored by the South Carolina Technology Alliance and the Greater Columbia Chamber of Commerce that strives to stimulate and facilitate the growth and awareness of technology-based businesses in Columbia, S.C.

"We're so honored to have received this award and hope that it is a precursor of more positive things to come," said Michael O'Leary, one of Rhythmink's partners.

Established in 2002, Rhythmink designs, manufactures and distributes a wide variety of neurodiagnostic accessories including subdermal needles, surface electrodes and EEG monitoring supplies as well as provides custom OEM solutions and device contract manufacturing. Rhythmink received this award because of its outstanding growth in sales, technological advancements and the overall impact and benefit that their products and business have had on the neurodiagnostic industry.
