Rhythmink International Recognized for Superior Safety Records

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Rhythmink International was recognized by the Safety, Health and Security Committee of the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce on March 16, 2010 for its impeccable safety record at both its 2009 locations.

Moving to its new location at 1140 First Street South, Rhythmink maintained a successful safety record for all of 2009. "The luncheon we attended was sponsored by the South Carolina Manufacturing Extension Partnership and Chamber of Commerce. Rhythmink was presented with a Safety Award for both of its locations in 2009. We were honored with John Martin, special guest speaker, who shared a wonderful, personal life story with us," said Master Scheduler Tammy Huiett.

Rhythmink's new facility hosts a 10,000 square foot warehouse. As an electrode manufacturer, Rhythmink's warehouse staff is consistently receiving and shipping product in and out of the warehouse. Based in Columbia, S.C., Rhythmink supplies neurodiagnostic accessories to customers all across the United States and Europe.
